

A Class Divided: Frontline Documentary

Name: _____

Before you watch the video, answer the following two questions:

1. How much of an issue is race and/or race prejudice in our society today? Give an example to back up your answer.

2. How much does your race influence how you see yourself as a person? Why does influence of race in a person's life differ from person to person, and among groups?

After/During the video:

1. What was the main reason the blue-eyed experiment was conducted?

2. Do you think this exercise is effective in getting people to understand the experience of racism? Explain

3. Do you feel you experience discrimination on a regular basis for whatever reasons? If yes, explain

4. Who do you believe experiences the worst discrimination in our society? Why?

5. What ideas did this video reinforce about discrimination?

6. What surprised you about the video?

7. What concerns do you have about discrimination?

8. What actions can you take to address these concerns?